Friends of YJI

West Des Moines, Iowa

Dedicated to enhancing the services of the Youth Justice Initiative

Our mission is the raising of funds through targeted efforts to support and enhance the restorative processes implemented in the local community through the Youth Justice Initiative (YJI).

YJI is demonstrating results

- 72% of participants successfully complete the program
- 100% understand their crime's effect on victim(s)
- 94% completing do not re-offend within 12 months
- Received exemplary project award by CALEA (Commission on Accreditation of Law Enforcement Agencies)

YJI is primarily a volunteer organization with one paid coordinator and part-time case monitors

- An advisory group that includes city officials, youth, WDM schools, the justice system, and business and community groups

YJI is a collaborative community effort to reintegrate young offenders in West Des Moines into the community and aid victims in healing and moving forward. Its stated goals are to:

- Increase youth offender accountability
- Increase stakeholder participation in justice process
- Help victims feel reparation is made
- Decrease repeat offenses
- Increase WDM safety and prevent youth crime
